This matter is before the Court on plaintiff's motions to proceed in forma pauperis. Also before the Court is defendant's response to plaintiff's motions.

The Court notes that each of plaintiff's complaints originated under the public accommodation provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act. These actions could not have been brought against the twenty-one different defendants in one lawsuit, thus, the sheer number of claims before the Court cannot provide a basis for denying plaintiff in forma pauperis status. Moreover, a review of the complaint in this action shows that plaintiff has stated a viable claim for relief against defendant under the ADA, such that this litigation should move forward. As such, the Court will grant plaintiff's motions to proceed in forma pauperis.

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that plaintiff's motions to proceed in forma pauperis [ECF No. 25 and No. 26] are GRANTED.

So Ordered this 24th day of August, 2012.
